CONFIDENTIAL7. PFIAB Meeting Regarding "Leaks"

The Director of Security and the DCI recently attended a meeting of the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board (PFIAB) in which the continuing problem of "leaks" was discussed. The meeting focused on four serious leak cases which are currently being investigated by the Security Analysis Group. One member of the PFIAB suggested that a newspaper journalist who has been alleged to have been responsible for one of the leaks may be called before a select grand jury. []

11. SORT Recruitment

In response to numerous newspaper advertisements, the Office of Security has received some [] resumes for the SORT Program. [] noted that the majority of these responses have been from the Midwest area. In this connection, [] will visit New York and Boston next week to interview prospective SORT applicants. [] reported that much time and money has been saved in the SORT Program through greater use of decentralized applicant processing. As a result of this innovative process, SORT applicants will need to visit Headquarters only once during the processing cycle when the polygraph examination will be administered. []
